

Are you a cowboy at heart? Here are some stories to take you out on the open range.

Cactus tracks & cowboy philosophy / Baxter Black Brokeback Mountain / Annie Proulx

Fables, folklore and fabrications: tales of the laughter and misfortunes of the cowboys, apple-knockers, ranchers and loggers in Central Washington in the 40s and 50s / by Donald R. Johnson.

Humorous cowboy poetry

Last buckaroo / Mackey Hedges

Leaving Cheyenne / by Larry McMurtry

Lonesome Dove: a novel / by Larry McMurtry

North to the rails / Louis L'Amour

The Virginia City trail / Ralph Compton

The Virginian: a horseman of the plains / Owen Wister

The willow field / William Kittredge

The best western stories of John Jakes

The big sky: a novel / A.B. Guthrie, Jr

Blood and thunder: an epic of the American West /

Hampton Sides

Brimstone / Robert B. Parker

The broncbuster / Mike Flanagan

By sorrow's river: a novel / Larry McMurtry

Cheyenne raiders / Robert Jordan