

In Summer Twilight
Joshua Henry Jones Jr.

Just a dash of lambent carmine
Shading into sky of gold;
Just a twitter of a song-bird
Ere the wings its head enfold;
Just a rustling sigh of parting
From the moon-kissed hill to breeze;
And a cheerful gentle, nodding
Adieu waving from the trees;
Just a friendly sunbeam's flutter
Wishing all a night's repose,
Ere the stars swing back the curtain
Bringing twilight's dewy close.
