Grace Period Policy Change

Beginning April 1st, the Library will assess overdue fines immediately upon the first day after items are officially due back at the library. This change was requested by our consortium of 26 CIN libraries. Please, watch your email for notices of soon-to-be-overdue items and return or renew them by their due dates. Print outs of items and due dates are always available at the time of check out and in your online library account. Access your account at cin.bywatersolutions.com with your library card number and your PIN of your last name in all capital letters.
